

Malainin Lakhal - New Zealand tour programme

Hear a speaker from Western Sahara - Africa's last colony.
An inspiring example of resistance and survival.

Malainan Lakhal, a journalist, was forced to flee Moroccan-occupied Western Sahara in 2000 after being targeted by the regime for his activities as a leader of Saharawi resistance. He now works in the camps for the Saharawi Press Service, bringing news of his peoples' struggle to the world. He will speak of the struggle in the Moroccan-occupied territories today and the life of Saharawis in the camps.

Wellington:

Thursday, July 19, 12.30 – 1.30pm Lunchtime seminar with the Council for International Development, 2nd Floor James Smiths Centre, cnr. Manners Mall and Cuba. Tel: Ph: +64 4 496 9615.

Thursday, July 19, 6pm public meeting, doors open at 5.30pm, Turnbull House, Bowen St. Ph Awras 027 3036037

Hamilton:

Friday, July 20, 7.30pm public meeting, doors open at 7pm, Methodist Church Centre, 62 London St. Hosted by Corso

Auckland:

Monday, July 23. 4.30–6pm W117, St Pauls St, AUT University. Meeting hosted by the Pacific Media Centre

Monday, July 23. 7.30pm , Trades Hall, 147 Great North Rd, Meeting hosted by Global Peace and Justice.

Tuesday, July 24, 6pm – 7.30pm Lecture Theatre 032, Clock Tower Building, University of Auckland, 22 Princes Street. Meeting hosted by the New Zealand Institute of International Affairs.

For More information: www.awsa.org.au

Contact: Annalucia Vermunt 09 5257407, NZ Western Sahara Group; Patrick Rooney juntomundo@gmail.com